Tulare-Kings Hispanic Chamber of Commerce
Member Code of Conduct

As a Member of the Tulare-Kings Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, I/we recognize that membership is a privilege and that a membership brings with it the responsibility to assure all members understand and commit to the following code of conduct. I/we understand that by joining or renewing with the Tulare-Kings Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, we agree to the Member Code of Conduct as outlined below. I/we further understand my/our membership can be terminated without a refund if I/we do not adhere to the Chamber of Commerce Code of Conduct for members. The code of conduct shall, without limitation, require members and their representatives of Chamber-sponsored programs, and as a general Member to:

- Conduct business and professional activities in a reputable manner so as to reflect honorably upon the business community and fellow Chamber members.
- Refrain from publicly disparaging the business practices of fellow members and refrain from condoning or engaging in misrepresentation or unethical practices of fellow members.
- Observe the highest standards of ethics in rendering services and/or offering products for sale, based on the member's own knowledge and expertise.
- Refrain from engaging in any practices prohibited by law or seeking unfair advantage over fellow members and conform to all laws established by Municipal, State and Federal governments for the control of said business, where applicable.
- Respect the reputation, profile and status of the Tulare-Kings Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, and represent the Chamber accordingly.
- Respect the role of the Chamber professional staff and its Board of Directors.
- I/we understand that the failure to adhere to the professional obligations of the Tulare-Kings Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, as outlined above, can result in the termination of my/our membership.
